This might be expected, if its action is to keep the loosened stapes in its place. And that it does operate in this way is confirmed by many evidences. For instance, in one case of a man so deaf from scarlatina in infancy that he habitually pronounced words according to their spelling, and whose tympanum was filled with spongy growths, but on whom, after they were removed, the india-rubber discs had a splendid effect, it frequently happened that while I was cleaning out the tympanum, using a camel s-hair brush or rolled-up cotton-wool to dry it, he would exclaim, I can hear: and it was evident that the stapes had been touched. To a similar effect in bracing up the stapes, l...
